California Mental Health: Older Adult System of Care A Cross-Report Comparison

	System Plan	Revision System Framework		Demonstration Project
Values Guiding PROCESS	INDIVIDUAL Quality of Life (QoL) Client Strengths Empowerment Self-help *Family & Community Involvement SYSTEM Cultural & Linguistic Competence Assessment & Tx Age & Gender Appropriate Access CBS Prevent Inappropriate Institutionalization Prevent Suicide Multidisciplinary Service Coordination Medical/psychiatric Interface	INDIVIDUAL Healthy aging Recovery/Resilience Emphasis Strengths, QoL, Options & Contributions Regain Social Roles Holistic (BioPsycho/Soc/Spiritual) *Consumer/Family/Caregiver/ Community Focus & Empowerment SYSTEM Value Diversity / Overcome Access Barriers / Targeted Outreach Services planned with consumers /Partnerships agencies, community Continuum of Services /Transition Pathways Tx Medical, Co-morbidities and Social Problems Ongoing Staff Training Outcome Accountability / Research & Evaluation	DEFINITION	1. Full array of Services from Prevention to Least Restrictive 2. Coordination and continuity with family, peer support and CBS 3. Cultural & Linguistic Competent 4. Comprehensive Medical & Psychiatric Model 5. Transportation/Mobile and Home-based Services
Service Delivery STRUCTURE	Level I Prevention:  Early Detection, Outreach Level II Least Restrictive:  Access & Tx; CBS, medical screening; crisis intervention Level III Moderately Restrictive: Acute Inpatient, Residential Services Level IV Most Restrictive: Institutional Care	1. Prevention/ MH Promotion/ Wellness 2. Entry/Access 3. Therapeutic, Recovery/Habiliative 4. Services Integrated 5. Agencies/Partnerships/Collaboratives *Applicable both Individual & System	MODEL	PROCESSES & OUTCOMES 1. Coalition/Coordination 2. Access Strategies 3. Increased Access 4. Services Delivered 5. Services Delivered 6. Project Results: Consumer Flow and Improvement
	California Mental Health Planning Council. California Mental Health Master Plan: A Vision for California, pg 91-114 (2003).	California Mental Health Directors Association. Older Adult System of Care Framework (2001, revised 2005)		California Department of Mental Health. Analysis of the Older Adult System of Care Demonstration Project. (2004)

Citation

California Mental Health: Older Adult System of Care A Cross-Report Comparison

The System Plan Revision System Framework Demonstration Project Result of providing outreach and assessment Person with serious mental illness who Person 60 years and older who due to a services to the target population over age 60, serious mental disorder, have a reduction also meets this criteria (No age criterion): the Demonstration Projects put forward the in personal or community functioning, and DSM diagnosis other than substance are best served in a public specialty mental following findings related to the target abuse, DD, or traumatic brain injury health system. population: As result of MI: Include persons with a variety of co-Transition age adults (ages 55-59) with Substantial impairment or symptoms occurring disorders evaluations and service needs similar to older and risk of decompensation; disability and public assistance counterparts SoC acknowledges leadership in facilitating services to other populations through At risk of acute psychiatric care TARGET Older adults present with concomitant cooperation and cooperation mental, physical and cognitive disorder POPULATION Needs brief Tx (e.g. result of natural making diagnosis a complex process Broad range of consumer categories: disaster or emergency) Due to this SoC services might begin prior to NOTE: Recommended when sufficient Older Adults 60-64 "Young Old" the diagnosis of a mental disorder (those Older Adults 65-84 "Middle Old" resources available who do not fall into Older Adults 85+ "Oldest Old" above target population could be persons presenting with unclear, complex symptoms). with adjustment and other disorders who could benefit from outpatient and peer counseling so as to be prevented from falling into target population. California Mental Health Planning Council. California Mental Health Directors Association. California Department of Mental Health. Analysis California Mental Health Master Plan: A Vision Older Adult System of Care Framework (2003, of the Older Adult System of Care Demonstration for California, pg 91-114 (2003). revised 2005) Project. (2004)