

2023 California Health Interview Survey (CHIS) Preliminary COVID-19 Estimates

New data from the March and April 2023 CHIS sheds light on reasons Californians did not get the full vaccine series, experiences with long COVID, access to masks, financial impacts of the pandemic, and more.

COVID-19 Testing

More than 1 in 2 (55%)

California adults have ever received a positive test result for COVID-19

How did they receive their positive test result?

Views on the COVID-19 Vaccine

Reasons for not completing the primary vaccine series...

1 in 10

California adults have not completed the primary vaccine series for COVID-19

1 in 3 (32%)

California adults will not get additional COVID-19 vaccine doses if recommended by health guidelines

Long COVID

Among California adults who have received a positive test result for COVID-19, who experienced COVID symptoms for two months or longer?

28%
All California adults

Latino/a/x adults were 2x more likely than white adults to have long COVID symptoms

40%
Latino/a/x adults

20%
white adults

By income/federal poverty level (FPL)

Personal Impacts of the Pandemic

1 in 9 (11%)

California adults said they had financial difficulties with paying rent or mortgage

Latinx adults (17%) were 2.5 times more likely than white adults (6%)

California adults who have not completed the primary vaccine series for COVID-19 (22%) were 2 times more likely than California adults who have completed the primary vaccine series (10%)

Access to N95, KN95, and KF94 Masks

1 in 3 (33%)

California adults do not have an N95, KN95, or KF94 mask

Who did not have an N95, KN95, or KF94 mask?

By income/federal poverty level (FPL)

Among California adults who did not have an N95, KN95, or KF94 mask...

Reasons for not being able to get a mask

About 3 in 5 (61%) said they are too expensive

About 3 in 10 (29%) don't know where to buy them or can't find them

